

WvAD

WALKER VAN AALST DESIGN
WWW.WVADESIGN.COM
WAYNE@WVADESIGN.COM
KIRSTEN@WVADESIGN.COM
1102 MOUNTAINVIEW
N DUXBURY VT 05676
P:802 244 8129

Wayne M. Walker Architect

REGISTRATION:

- New York State, license number 28692
- Vermont, license number 2924

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor of Architecture 1993, New Jersey Institute of Technology

PRACTICE:

WALKER VAN AALST DESIGN, North Duxbury VT 2006- present

- Thunder Basin Maple Works 2, Cambridge, VT. $150,000.00. 3,000 square foot Steam Generator addition to Evaporator and Storage Plant for processing maple syrup from 60,000 tap sugarbush. 2011.
- US Land Port of Entry in Van Buren Maine. $35 million. LEED gold certified 30,000 square foot border station for the General Services Administration. Project architect during design phases, with Architect of Record Robert Siegel Architects. Design Architects: Julie Snow Architects. 2011.
- State University of New York, Purchase NY. $10 million exterior envelope renovation to Visual Arts Building, including new curtainwall, masonry and green roof system. Design consultant and project architect during construction with Robert Siegel Architects. 2010.
- Ben & Jerry's Homemade, Inc., Waterbury Center, VT. $100,000.00. 500 square foot Food Laboratory renovation for the Waterbury plant and visitors center. 2010.
- Ben & Jerry's Homemade, Inc., Waterbury Center, VT. $350,000.00. 2,000 square foot Waste Water Education Building providing rest room facilities and process water recycling with education opportunities for the Waterbury plant and visitors center. 2009.
- Thunder Basin Maple Works, Cambridge, VT. $500,000.00. 8,000 square foot Evaporator and Storage Plant for processing maple syrup from 60,000 tap sugarbush. 2009.
- US Land Port of Entry in Calais, Maine. $42 million. LEED gold certified 100,000 square foot border station for the General Services Administration. AIA NY 2009 Design Award Project. Design and Technical consultant with Robert Siegel Architects.
- Ben & Jerry's Homemade, Inc., Waterbury Center, VT. Production Room expansion, New Facility Entrance addition, Production Room ceiling 3D mural. 2007 - 2008.
- Office Building, Duxbury VT. $50,000 200 square foot prefabricated building. 2008.
- Firehouse Arts Center, Burlington, VT. $100,000.00 Reception, Elevator Lobby, and storefront renovation of Ethan Allen Firehouse no. 4 building for Burlington City Arts. 2009.
- College of Medicine Research Laboratory, University of Vermont, Burlington, VT. 5,000 square foot renovation for medical research group. Included two biochemistry laboratories. 2007.
- Hall Residence, Joshua Tree, CA. 1200 square foot home adjacent to the Joshua Tree National Park. Off-grid location inspired natural cooling and heating, solar power and small footprint.
- Bisson Residence, Duxbury, VT. Single family home design maximizing the possibilities of a pre-existing concrete foundation. 2008-2009.
- Anchorage Inn, York, ME $5 million 27,000 square foot 24 unit hotel adjacent to existing Anchorage Inn complex on the York public beach. With Marcel Beaudin and Associates. 2007.
- Berno Properties, Duxbury, VT. Planning services for mixed-use development along route 100 corridor.
- Farber Budliger Residence, Middlesex, VT. Renovation / Addition to existing saltbox. 2008.
- Langford Residence, Ottawa Canada. Intervention through preexisting suburban ranch home. 2008.
- Housing Prototypes, Bolton, VT. Single occupancy cabin prototypes utilizing off-site manufacturing and site assembly construction techniques. 2007.
- Sorkin Residence, Cambridge, VT. $2 million 5,000 square foot home. Locally harvested timber frame and structural insulated panel construction. 2006.

- Smith Residence, Waterbury, VT. Dining room and bedroom addition. 2007.
- Cave Moose Farm Barn, Cambridge, VT. $250,000.00 3,500 square foot telescoping barn and farm manager's apartment for organic farm operation. 2003.

John Anderson Studio, Burlington VT 1999 - 2006

- Carrigan Wing Addition, University of Vermont, Burlington, VT. $7 million LEED silver certified 16,000 square foot addition to the Marsh Life Sciences building relocating the UVM Department of Food and Nutritional Sciences. Addition included research laboratories, departmental offices and faculty office space as well as interpretive depictions of Vermont in the landscape and food world. Project Architect. 2006.
- Firehouse Arts Center, Burlington, VT. $3.5 million adaptive reuse of c. 1888 Ethan Allen Fire Co. no. 4 building, providing art gallery, photography, classroom, artist-in-residence and office space for Burlington City Arts. Project Architect. 2000-2003.
- Burlington Intervale Community Food Enterprise Center, Burlington, VT. $3.7 million food processing facility utilizing LEED quality construction techniques. Project Architect.
- Lake Champlain Chocolates, Burlington & Waterbury, VT. (3) Retail outlets for Lake Champlain Chocolates including educational and cafe spaces. 2004-2006.

Roland Batten Architect, Burlington VT 1997 - 1998

- Masonic Hall Multi-Use renovation, Middlebury, VT. $1.0 million renovation of 180-year-old four story brick Masonic Hall for the Vermont Folklife Center. Project Architect.
- Lowey Trybus Residence, Milton, VT. 2,500 square foot residence on Lake Champlain.

Garrison Siegel Architects, New York NY 1995 - 1996

- Swissair / Switzerland Tourism / Ruesch International Shared Facility, Manhattan, NY. $1.2 million street level shared tourism / banking facility. Project Architect.
- Swiss Center Storefront, Manhattan, NY. $1.2 million renovation of land-marked 5th Avenue building including complete replacement of 1st and 2nd floor storefront. Project Architect.

Robert Marino Architect, New York NY 1990 - 1994

- Boigon Residence, Harrison, NY. $120,000 addition / renovation of single family home. Job Captain.
- Tedesco Residence, Brooklyn, NY $90,000 renovation of two bedroom apartment unit. Job Captain.
- Competition work: New Urban Housing Competition 1991, Del Ray Beach Housing Competition 1992, Hermosa Beach Pier Design Competition 1993, Desert Tortoise Research Facility Competition 1994, The Laugh Competition 1994, KOMA Korean American Cultural Center Competition 1995.

TEACHING:

- Norwich University, Northfield VT, Adjunct Professor, 2003- Present.
- Yestermorrow Design Build School, Instructor, 2002- Present.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- Town of Duxbury Development Review Board, Duxbury VT, 2002 - 2010.
- Town of Duxbury Planning Commission, Duxbury VT, 2001 -2010.
- Architectural columnist for The Vector, Newark NJ, 1989-1993.

DESIGN AWARDS:

- 2011 NY State AIA Design Award, US Land Port of Entry in Calais, Maine with Robert Siegel Architects.
- 2010 General Services Administration Design Awards, US Land Port of Entry in Calais, Maine. Architecture Citation with Robert Siegel Architects.
- 2007 NYC AIA Project Award, US Land Port of Entry in Calais, Maine with Robert Siegel Architects.
- 2004 VT AIA Award, Firehouse Center for the Visual Arts with John Anderson Studio.
- 2002 VT AIA Award, KSV renovation, Burlington, VT with John Anderson Studio.
- 1996 Winning entry in international design competition for the Korean Embassy in Beijing China, with Garrison Siegel Architects.

PUBLICATIONS:

- Eco-Structure, "Red, White, Blue, and Green: Calais, Maine", March 2011.
- Metropolis, January 2011 "Observed"
- The Calais Land Port Of Entry, General Services Administration, November 2010.
- Architect Magazine, "US Land Port of Entry", June 2010.
- Contemporary World Architects: Robert Marino, Oscar Ojeda, Rockport Publishers, 2002.
- Metropolis, September 1997.
- Architecture, "Korean Embassy in China", May 1996.
- Progressive Architecture, "Selected Details", April 1995.
- Faces, Journal D'Architecture, no. 33, Autumn 1994.
- New York: Nomadic Design, Christ and Dollens, 1991.